This statement is in relation to a trailer that I recovered and then was reported as being stolen.

I am Stephen Symonds and I work as a Recovery Patrolman for the AA and have done for the last three years. On Monday 13th August 2012 I started work at 0630hrs at the Depot in Southampton. When we start we check the truck that we are using for that tour of duty, switch and sign on the computer and wait to be deployed.

On that day I got a job almost immediately in Winchester. I was instructed to recover a van and trailer at Homebase and the map on the computer gives you the route to get the location. The van was being recovered as an AA employee had already been out and stated it was a problem with the gearbox, which could not be rectified on the road side.

I arrived at Homebase in Winchester about 0700hrs and found the van and trailer on the road adjacent to Homebase, facing me as I drove down to them. I am pretty sure the trailer was attached at that time. I think I went into the car park of Homebase, came back out onto that road then reversed back to the van.

When I got out there first, I saw four people in the front of the van as I reversed up to them, they started to get out. There were two males and two females. I asked the male, who I cannot remember if he was the driver or not, if he could unattach the trailer which was done. I got the straps from my truck and proceeded to put the van on the back of my truck.

The four of them looked tired and odd and I found out later in the journey that they had been to the music festival called Boon something.

Initially, I was going to pull tow the trailer so asked the same male if the lights worked on it. He hesitated and then said that they did. I attached the electric plug to it but the lights did not work. I then decided that I was going to have to put it behind the van on my truck, so I dragged it up as far as I could, putting the metal connection as far under the van as it could go. I then secured it on to my truck. I was concerned that someone might report an unsafe load so I took three photographs to show how secure it was. I produce these photographs as

SS/01 – Photos of blue trailer and transit CX52 JRZ

SS/02 – Close up of the trailer

SS/03 0 further close up of blue trailer

The four of them all got into the back of my truck as I was instructed to take them to Edmonton. The address would probably have been on my computer but it is definitely on my paperwork which was signed by the male who I am sure was in the drivers seat, who I dealt with mainly on the roadside and I assumed was the AA member. As far as I recall there was nothing on my computer screen indicating that he was a new member and I would have put his details on my paperwork too. I produce the paper work I completed at the time of the recovery as SS/04.

I then drove to Edmonton the address I cannot recall at this time but it will be on my paperwork. I arrived at the address at about 1000hrs after the member (I assume) and I were discussing the best route to take. The AA mapping system and my Tom Tom Sat Nav were giving different routes and the chap told me to go via M25.

As we got near the address the chap was telling me which roads to go down as well as me keeping an eye on the mapping system.

The road was quite a big main road and he indicated where he lived so I pulled over and parked outside the house, which was on the right, behind some other parked vehicles.

Four of them got out and some went into the address. I did not really pay much attention as started to unload the trailer and van. The male I had been dealing with stayed outside, I assume to move the trailer and van if necessary and to sign my paperwork.

After he had signed I pulled away and pulled up about 100-150 metres ahead so I could have a cigarette and clear the job from my computer, ready for the next one. This was done at about 1020hrs.

Whilst I stood outside my truck having a cigarette and possibly a drink from my flask, so I was stood on the pavement by the ramp. I had a good view of the house and road as I stood there and I was aware that a marked MET police van drove past from my left to my right. It stopped opposite the house that I had been given. Two other cars then turned up and I saw some officers walk up to one of the house doors.

The address I have been given had some old cars and an ice cream trailer in the front garden, so it was quite distinctive. From where I stood when the officers went to the door, I cannot be certain if it was that address or the neighbours. The two officers from the van were not in uniform that I do remember.

I then packed up and left, as I had another job to go to. After about a mile I got a phone call from a colleague, Colin Jones, enquiring about the trailer saying he thought it may be stolen as he was in Winchester talking to someone who was missing one.

All four of them were black, in their 20's wearing either a hoody or anorak with the hoods up. I did not pay much attention to them as I was busy loading up the van and trailer. I cannot remember much else about them. I think I only saw one of them smoking and I think it was one of the girls. There was no real conversation between me and them or between themselves on the journey to London so I cannot give any personal information about them.

I think I stopped at Fleet Services so I could go to the toilet but I do not think that they got out. I was parked in the lorry car park.

I have rung the AA and the address I was given to take the can and trailer to was 23 Byron Terrace, Hertford Road, Edmonton. N9 7DG and the chap has been a member for about a year.

After I spoke to Colin I rang the AA to advise them that the trailer I recovered may be stolen and the police may contact them.

States,

At 1030 hours on Friday the 13th of August 2012 I was on duty in full uniform in Edmonton, north London.

At this time I attended, with other officers, 23 Byron Terrace, Edmonton.

As we arrived at the address I saw a male I now know to be Simon Cordell (b26/1/81).

Cordell was getting out of the driver's door of a van parked outside the address. The Van had a trailer attached to the rear. The vehicle was stationery.

Cordell went into the address. I knocked on the front door of the premises and spoke to Cordell. As a result of Cordell's behaviour I spent the next few hours talking to him.

He told me the following:

He had been to a pop concert down in the Hampshire area with his girlfriend. He said that he had taken LSD tablets and had become ill and had left the concert. He had then attempted to return from the concert but his van had broken down. He had then been returned to the Edmonton address by means of the AA.

Cordell confirmed to me several times that the van outside the address was his and he was the driver of it when it was working. We did not specifically discuss the trailer which I believe was a single axle standard trailer.

Cordell's behaviour at this time was suicidal and I was not able to discuss any of these issues in depth with him.

Cordell left the house some 3 hours; the vehicles were still parked outside at this time.

Suspect arrested at 8.24am. Notes started at 9.20am at Case Progression Unit at Edmonton Police Station. This is my original note and the events are fresh in my memory. I have been a police officer for 28 years, the last 9 of which has been as a police dog handler. My police dog (PD), Linpol Tango, is 3 years of age and is licensed in safety, efficiency and control has completed a 3 month intensive initial course and undergoes 9 days a year continuation training in which, he is trained to locate suspects via human scent. Further to this, he has been trained to identify property that has been left at the scene or discarded. Also due to his environmental training, he indicates objects that may have been touched, moved or disturbed. He is also trained to detain a suspect who is attempting to evade detention or presents a threat to himself or his handler. On Monday 15 October 2012 at about 8am I was on duty in full uniform employed in a fully marked police dog vehicle equipped and adapted for use for the conveyance of police dogs. I was assigned via the main force radio channel to attend BURNCROFT AVENUE, Enfield. Cad 1352 refers to officers who had attended 109 Burncroft Avenue in an attempt to arrest a male for theft of a trailer in Winchester, Hampshire (Cad 3311 of 11/10./2012 refers). The male suspect had been seen to decamp out the rear of the premises and was believed to be in back gardens. As I was on my way using the emergency lights and sound, I heard over the Enfield Borough radio channel a message from a Pc 815YE CAWLEY that the suspect was known to him and that for officer safety purposes, the suspect was violent. On arrival, I spoke to Pc 138YE SIMS. He and other officers had spread a cordon around a square of terraced houses and maisonettes at the rear of 109 Burncroft Ave. He told me that the Service helicopter was on its way to assist in the search for the male. From what he told me I believed I had reasonable cause to believe the male had committed an offence and that the use of my dog to find the male was lawful as he was wanted for theft of a trailer and had made strenuous efforts to evade arrest. I considered that the use of force used in deploying the dog to search and then detain the suspect by barking at him or biting him if an attempt to escape was made, was justified and proportionate under both Section 117 PACE 1984 and Section 3 of the Criminal Law Act 1967. The information given to me was that he had attempted to escape police previously on another matter and he had threatened to throw bricks at police and that he had armed himself with a kitchen knife. I therefore considered that the male posed a potential threat to myself, other officers and members of the public.. These laws state:

"Where any provision of this Act -

(a) confers a power on a constable; AND

(b) does not provide that the power may only be exercised with the consent of some person, other than a police officer, the officer may use reasonable force, if necessary, in the exercise of the power." (Section 117 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984);

"A person may use such force as is reasonable in the circumstances in the prevention of crime, or in effecting or assisting in the lawful arrest of offenders or suspected offenders or of persons unlawfully at large." (Section 3 of the CLA 1967)

Deployment of the dog to search for any suspects was appropriate in the circumstances and was fully in accordance with the Association of Chief Police Officer (ACPO) guidelines on the deployment of police dogs which states:

"A dog handler will justify direct deployment utilising the Officer Safety Model and should seek to indicate that their perception is that:

- 1. The direct deployment of a Police Dog is necessary to prevent escalation at an incident and such deployment is likely to assist in maintaining the safety of officers and innocent persons, or evidence will be lost; or*

The offender is unlawfully at large." (ACPO Manual of Guidance).

I took PD Linpol Tango from the van and went to the nearest access point into the back gardens via a laundry drying area. I gave a loud and clear challenge for the male to make himself known to police. Receiving no reply I gave final warning and put my dog over the fence into a back garden. Immediately I saw the dog go to the bottom left of the garden and put his paws up on the left hand fence panel, his head up. I then noticed the helicopter arrive overhead and commence searching. I put the dog over the left hand fence panel and I saw the dog go to the bottom of that garden and put his paws up against the back fence panel. I then heard over the radio, from the helicopter, that a suspect was coming out of a shed to my left in a garden in the opposite row of houses backing onto the one I was in. I joined my dog. As I put him over the fence, I saw the male I now know to be Simon CORDELL jump up onto the fence to my diagonal left. I scaled the fence and took hold of my dogs collar with my right hand. I was now in the rear garden of 69 Burncroft Avenue and about 10 feet from the male who now jumped down in front of me. I could see he was an athletically built 30 year old male wearing a Black baseball jacket, light Blue T shirt and Grey jogging bottoms. I shouted at him " Police with a dog. Keep your hands in view and get down on the ground " He shouted back " I'm giving myself up. I aint getting on the ground. " Mr Cordell then began to walk towards me, his eyes moving to the left and right. I noticed his left hand go to his jacket. I did not know what he was doing with his hand and I believed that he may be armed or had taken something from the shed he had been seen leaving. I also believed that he may be looking for a way to decamp. These two thoughts crossed my mind as I shouted " Stand still, get on the ground, or the dog will be sent. " Still holding the dog I grabbed his T shirt in the chest area and tried to pull him down to the ground. He then began to struggle violently with me with me and I had to let go of the dog to have two hands free. I felt that I was not strong enough to control the male and I commanded the dog to 'Hold him' (to bite the male). The dog began to bark aggressively and circle Cordell and myself as we struggled. I was beginning to tire and the male was twisting and turning in my grip. I struck him in the abdomen (stomach area) as hard as I could with a closed hand to double him over. This he did and we both fell against the fence and the ground. It was then that I saw my dog come in and bite the male on the right side of the face and immediately release. I was then joined by Pc's SIMS and 127YE Finnegan. The male continued to struggle violently and scream abuse as I placed handcuffs on him in rear back to back position double locking them and checking for tightness. I noticed he was bleeding from a wound on the right side of his face, on the jawline. I said " I believe you have been bitten by the police dog. Calm down and we will clean you up and deal with your injuries and take you to hospital if necessary." He shouted " Fuck off you cunts. You aint going anywhere near my face. Fuck off. " He was taken from the garden through number 69 Burncroft Avenue. At 8.24am he was arrested by Pc Sims for theft of a Trailer and cautioned to which he made no reply. He was placed in a police van. Concerned with his welfare, I said " I think you need to have the wound cleaned for you." He said "Fuck off. I'll see the doctor." I furnished him with a police dog bite card which gives advice regarding

On MONDAY 15th OCTOBER 2012 I was on duty in full uniform in a marked police car call sign YE21 Earlies with PC WILLIAMS 165YE. We were a taser equipped car. We were asked by PS RIGBY 37YE to carry out an arrest enquiry for HAMPSHIRE POLICE. CAD 3311 refers. The CAD stated to arrest a Simon CORDELL 26/01/1981 of 23 BYRON TERRACE, N9. We asked for another unit to assist us. Y3 PC FINNEGAN 127YE and PC SIMS 138YE assisted us. We arrived at 23 BYRON TERRACE at about 0710 hours. As the details of the arrest from HAMPSHIRE was that between 12th and 13th AUGUST 2012 a trailer had been stolen from Martins NISSAN, EASTERN LANE, WINCHESTER. The description of the trailer was Blue and Brown. As we walked upto the address I noticed a trailer matching the description on the driveway. It was behind an ice cream van on the driveway. We knocked at the door and a female I now know to be Mrs CORDELL answered the door. She stated Simon was not in and she did not know where he was. The address was searched and he was not there. I have had dealings with the suspect CORDELL in the past. He has been verbally aggressive to me whilst working in the station office. There was also information on the CAD that CORDELL had previously ran from officers and threatened to throw objects at any officer that came near him. He then armed himself with a knife and held it to his throat. Other colleagues also mentioned he can be extremely violent. PC CAWLEY 815YE said over the radio that he had struggled to detain him in the past and he was known to arm himself. Due to the fact we believed the stolen item, the trailer at the location, recovery was arranged for it to be siezed. Mrs CORDELL also said it had been there for about two (2) months. Further checks PC SIMS 138YE stated to us that he was aware CORDELL drives a van with a trailor on the back that often carries fairground rides. Further checks were carried out by the intellegence channel which showed another address for CORDELL this was 109 BURNCROFT AVENUE, EN3. We now made our way to this address. Outside the block of flats was a van with a trailor attached and a fairground ride. We went to the communal door however there was a combination code to get in. No one knew knew the code so we were unable to get in this way. Flat 109 is on the ground floor on the right had side. There is only one (1) other flat on the ground floor located to the left. PC SIMS 138YE went to the rear gardens of the flat. We intially knocked on the window to the left to see if they would let us in however they did not answer. We then knocked on the window of 109 BURNCROFT AVENUE. A male I now know to be MR SIMON CORDELL, 26/01/1981 of 109 BURNCROFT AVENUE, EN3 pull up the bli netting. He was a light skinned IC3 male with short black hair. He immediately had an aggressive tone asking police what we wanted. He opened the window and started to shout at officers. I informed him that we needed to talk to him and could not do this through the window. CORDELL refused and said he would only talk through the window. CORDELL then asked if he was being arrested. PC 127YE told CORDELL that police needed to arrest him for a Theft matter regarding HAMPSHIRE POLICE and that everything would be explained when he came outside. CORDELL then said "OK I'll come outside give me a minute". Shortly after PC SIMS said he could hear movement coming from the back of the flat. I ran round to the back to join him. There is a fenced area surrounding the gardens. The fence was about 6'0" high. I could see into the garden however. I then saw CORDELL come out the flat into the garden he had a dark jumper on and I could see he was wearing blue jeans. CORDELL then started to escape by climbing over the fences of the garden. I ran round to try and prevent his escape. The gardens lead on to some allotments. The allotments were secured by a large locked gate. I could see into the allotments and there was no sign of CORDELL and I could not see hear any further movement. I was certain that CORDELL was still in one off of the back gardens. Where I was standing was by the side of the flats 145-155 which was also at the gate to the allotments. There was a side gate that was secure & that lead into some gardens here. I stood at the location here to put a containment in place. PC SIMS 138YE was still by the fenced area looking into the gardens where we last saw CORDELL. PC 127YE then ran to the other side to where I was standing to put a containment in there. PC 165YE also placed himself on the corner of where 109 BURNCROFT AVENUE was. We requested a dog unit and the air support unit (199) to assist. Further units also put a containment in on the other side of the allotments and DURANTS park. The dog unit and 199 arrived on scene shortly after. The dog unit went into rear gardens where CORDELL was last seen. I stood at the same location to put a contain keep the containment in place. I eventually heard the dog barking and some shouting. 199 transmitted that the dog unit had located him and that he appeared to be getting aggressive with officers. I tried to find a way round to the gardens however they were all secured by fences. I assisted PC WILLIAMS to help him get over the fence. I eventually heard that there were now two (2) officers with the dog unit and CORDELL was in handcuffs. PC 127YE said they were in the rear garden of number 69 BURNCROFT AVENUE. A van unit arrived and I directed them in. I then saw PC 127YE and PC 138YE walk CORDELL over to the van. CORDELL still appeared aggressive. He was shouting saying he got bitten by the dog. He also kept swearing saying "Fuck this". I could see there was some blood and a graze on his chin. He was handcuffed back to back and as he was walking to the van shouting he kept tensing his body up. PC 127YE advised CORDELL that his injury would be looked at back at custody. CORDELL was then taken to EDMONTON police station where all the facts were relayed to PS ELDRIDGE who authorised his detention. I have taken photographs of the trailer in the front garden of 23 BYRON TERRACE, these have been siezed as EBR-4) EBR/1 - One (1) photo of trailer looking inside. On MONDAY the 15th OCTOBER 2012, I was on duty in uniform, patrolling in a marked Police vehicle, deployed with Taser in the company of PC 127YE FINNEGAN. Vehicle call-sign Y36.

At around 0700 hrs we recieved a call to attend 23 BYRON TERRACE Enfield EN3 to conduct an arrest enquiry on behalf of Hampshire Police. They requested an arrest enquiry for Simon CORDELL, DOB 26/01/1981 who was wanted for Theft of a trailer at MARTIN'S NISSAN, EASTON LANE, WINCHESTER, HAMPSHIRE between the 12-13th August 2012. The trailer was described as being blue and brown. Checks were conducted on CORDELL which revealed that on a previous occasion CORDELL climbed onto a roof and threatened to throw a brick on the head of an officer who tried to arrest him, he had also held a knife to his throat and threatened to kill himself if he was approached. We were also advised by PC 815YE CAWLEY that CORDELL could be extremely violent and often had weapons in his waistband. CAD 3311/11OCT12 refers. We accepted the call and made our way with PC 165YE WILLIAMS and PC 268YE RUMNEY.

On arrival the trailer was found in the front garden. We were informed by CORDELL'S mother that he no longer lived at the address. The trailer was seized and checks were conducted to find another address. The checks revealed an address of 109 BURNCROFT AVENUE, EN3. I have dealt with Mr CORDELL on a number of occasions and know him to be aggressive and drives a white van with the logo "TOO SMOOTH" written on the side. On arrival at BURNCROFT AVENUE I saw the van parked outside. We have attempted to gain entry to the block but it was secured with a key code. I have gone to the back of the flats to watch the rear of the property. After a few minutes PC FINNEGAN stated that they were speaking to CORDELL through the ground floor window. He stated that CORDELL was refusing to answer the door. I kept observation on the back of the premises by looking over a 6 ft fence. I was located about 2-3 gardens away. After a few minutes I saw movement of the rear door and I was joined by PC RUMNEY. I have then seen Simon walk out of rear door and walk towards the end of the garden. I have shouted "Stay there Simon we need to speak to you". Simon has replied "Fuck off" and started to climb over fences. PC RUMNEY put this out over the radio whilst I watched where he went. I have seen him climb over 3 fences and then did not see him leave this garden. I later discovered that this was number 71. A containment was then put in place and we called for a dog unit and the air support unit (199) to attend. I remained where I was and kept observation on the garden and saw PC FINNEGAN had positioned himself a few gardens up. After several minutes the dog van, PC 6397CO, call-sign GO arrived on scene. I have pointed out where the male was last seen and helped the handler over the fence. The handler has started searching whilst I obtained a ladder from a resident to assist with the search. I have then climbed the fence and at this point the handler was one garden away. PC FINNEGAN has then put over ~~the~~ the radio that CORDELL had come out of a shed and was pacing around in the garden. The dog and handler have then gone off after the male by climbing another fence. PC FINNEGAN then put out that the male was attempting to make off again over fences. The dog and handler have ^{then} cut CORDELL off. I was one garden away at this point. I have ~~her~~ heard the Police dog start too bark bark and the dog handler shout "get on the floor." Simon was also shouting. I have climbed into the garden to assist PC DIGBY. I could see PC DIGBY struggling with CORDELL. CORDELL was refusing to get on the floor and was trying to break free. As I approached them PC DIGBY and CORDELL have fallen into the fence. I have shouted at CORDELL to get on the floor however he refused. When I was a couple of meters away I saw the dog bite CORDELL on the right side of the chin and then release him. I have then grabbed hold of CORDELL and struggled to get him on the floor which we managed a few seconds later.

CORDELL continued to shout and swear and had his arms tensed trying to resist having handcuffs put on. We have managed to get Simons hands behind his back and PC DIGBY placed him into handcuffs using the rear stack position. We have got Simon to his feet however he continued to struggle and try to resist. He was calling PC DIGBY a "cunt" amongst ~~ever~~ other things and was shouting "you watch I will get your dog put down. At this point PC FINNEGAN joined us in the ~~ra~~ rear garden having managed to get the occupants of number 69 to answer the door. We have lead CORDELL through the house into the front garden the whole time he was shouting and swearing. I had ~~attempting~~ attempted to arrest CORDELL in the rear garden however he continued to shout over me. Once CORDELL was in the front garden I switched on my body cam and arrested CORDELL for Theft.

At 0824 hrs I cautioned
