RESTRICTED

This material is disclosed to you in accordance with the provisions of the CPIA, and you must not use or disclose it, or any information recorded in it for any purpose other than in connection with these criminal proceedings. If you do so without the permission of the court, you may commit an offence.

If you consider that there is other prosecution material which might assist your defence and which has not already been disclosed, please let me know and I will reconsider my decision in the light of any further information that you provide. Alternatively, you may apply to the court under section 8 CPIA. The court will assess your application in the light of your defence statement.

If you request access to any item which has been marked for disclosure by inspection, it is essential that you preserve this letter in its present form, as access will only be granted upon production of this letter and the schedule previously provided to the person supervising access.

If you have a query in connection with this letter, please contact me.

Yours faithfully
