Dear Sirs,

R v Simon Paul CORDELL, Woolwich Crown Court 18th March, 2014

Disclosure of Prosecution Material under Section 7 Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996

I have considered your defence statement, provided under Section 5/section 6 Criminal Procedure and Investigations Act 1996 (CPIA) and your section 8 Application. Under my continuing duty to review issues of disclosure I am required to disclose to you any prosecution material which has not been previously disclosed and which might reasonably be expected to assist your defence, as described in your statement.

1. I attach CRIS reference 3005146/13 (burglary from February 2013) only some pages of which may assist you. However as a matter of courtesy all but 2 pages of the CRIS report which contain personal information with regard to the suspects detailed in the report have been disclosed to you.
2. The SOCO job sheet for the February 2013 burglary has already been disclosed to you.
3. The e-mail correspondence with Mr Patel's insurance company has been disclosed to you. The correspondence indicates that the claim was for repairs to the warehouse only. There is no mention of a claim for property stolen.
4. Ms Pursey was arrested for the burglary in May 2013 and interviewed. DC Johnson was the interviewing officer. In interview Pursey states that she attended the rave in February 2013 and that the beer can was left at the rave back in February and that she wasn't present at the rave in May. No further action was taken by the police with regard to Ms Pursey. Ms Pursey had been arrested in February 2013 (see CRIS 3005146/13).
