Hi Louise,

Thanks for this - I'm pleased to hear you think Deborah is being properly supported and that she sounded better - she was in a right state when we spoke to her last.

Good news that it looks like she might be able to get help to move.

For the camera, we are very happy to come along for a visit. I've spoken to our Sgt and as we understand it the ideal course of action is to advise him to remove it in our presence, then if he refuses I believe you can take it down and that should be fine so long as the camera itself is returned to Cordell. Let me know when your best days for it would be and I'll see when we can manage best.

Best wishes,

James

Hi James,

I spoke with Deborah Andrews this morning, the leak issue was sorted over the weekend this was from the flat above.

I do not know anything about Mr Cordell moving in two weeks time, unless she is getting confused with his threat that he will get her in two weeks time?

Overall I am concerned that Deborah is not managing and appears to be getting more confused the last few times I have spoken to her last week and today, she is also feeling that she needs further support by way of supported accommodation. I do agree with her as the level of support that St John of God provide is high and the dependency with other agencies is also constant and not something that housing or myself could provide long term.

Deborah was much calmer this morning and I reassured her that if she has any concerns to contact me.

With regard to the camera not he is not allowed it to be train on anything else other than his front door. Probably means I will need to visit him to get this sorted. I may request your assistance with this I don't really fancy
