

Simon: My last girlfriend used to be so paranoid for 13 years because of the amount she was knocking on my door and she being another female but I would never let this woman into my house I would keep her at arms length I new that she was a bit of an alcoholic so I would keep a few beers in my fridge for her I do not drink alcoholic myself I am t a total.

Doctor: Have you ever had any conflict with her have you ever threaten her.

Simon: Why would I threaten her I would never threaten another person.

Doctor xx: Never.

Simon: I got a letter of her right here that I am the best neighbour in the world I am going to show you them.

Doctor xx: Were.

Katie: She is causing problems.

Mother: He is having some problems with her in the sense that.

Simon: She won't leave me alone.

Mother: basically, she won't leave him alone.

Simon: She keeps stalking me under the criminal justice act 1997.

Mother: She keeps putting the letters through his letter box.

Doctor: OK.

Mother: And basically, I have been trying to deal with the council with that and there is a year worth of emails.

Simon: And she is always drunk.

Doctor: What is the content of the letters?

Simon: I have some here, right now loads of them.

Mother: she is sorry, she is sorry for keep on banning.

Simon: No, I am total I like to look after other people.

Doctor xx: We understand that in the past we have had some anti depression with depression and you.
