Officers attended 109 Burncroft avenue as neighbours from 117 called police to report the subject for knocking on their door repeatedly. On arrival it was clear to officers that the subject suffered with mental health due to his behaviour as well as repeating sentences over and over when police were tried to have a conversation him.

The subject displayed agitated behaviour and did not like the presence of police officers, due to previous incidents in the past. The subject was continuously shouting at police, telling them to "fuck off" from his block and that the neighbours are the ones that are harassing him and they apparently always call police on him.

The subject's mother showed up on scene shortly after, she was able to calm down the subject. The informant was spoken to by officers and so it was established that no offences have actually taken place, as he only knocked on the door. Neighbours were advised to call back in the event where he returns to their door and starts shouting/banging.
