

Following this he reports being placed on a 2 year injunction and a 5 year curfew. He feels this has led to a breakdown in a 13 year relationship he had. He also reports this affecting his company -a community interest company he started up. At one point Simon also mentioned the police targeting him for holding large parties that he was adamant were not hosted by him.

Simon reports owning a couple of local festivals and talks about engaging with multiple charities helping children. He says he had to stop this as police were harassing him in front of the children. He alleges to own his own company, his own paper and has just bought his own book maker for 70000 pounds. He also reports having 180000 friends on Facebook due to all his free parties.

When asked about his neighbours Simon said he believes his neighbours have been making up complaints about him. "My neighbours are calling up the police after forging the paperwork." He feels that his neighbours have been attacking him and reports feeling anxious in his house. Simon says he "kept writing to the police saying please can you protect me".

He does not think he is unwell and does not think he has a mental health problem. He admits he might be elevated but he believes this is a constructive state.

Simon reports not being compliant with any of his medication at any point. He is refusing to take any medication during this admission. "I've spent thousands of pounds showing you my brain, me being alert saves lives."

Simon would like to appeal his section and feels that by keeping him in hospital we are breaching his rights. "Physical or mental suffering amount to torture"

Reports sleeping, eating and drinking well. Later suggested this may not be the case stating "In the night time when my neighbours are asleep that's the best time for working".
