

- Commit further offences whilst on bail
- Failure to surrender

I do have the decision letter from the judge if needed for the bail application.
And the memorandum of conviction from the case of Simon Cordell heard on 03.03.2008 at City Of London Magistrate Court for failing to surrender, which showed the case was dismissed by the court due to my son proving he was in a bad accident and was in hospital.

I also noted there were more cases on his record that could be there in error so I contacted Highbury Corner Magistrates' Court who now deals with cases at Enfield Magistrates' Court this was on the 19 February 2014 via a phone call after speaking to someone at the court they asked me to send an email with all the dates and what was needed. I wrote the email and it was sent on the 19 February 2014 at 13:36 via email. It took until the 13/032014 to get the information I asked from by the court. I went to Enfield Magistrates' Court to collect the information and was told to be there by 16:00 to 16:30. Once I got to the court I spoke to the lady who had been gathering the information I had asked for, her name was Benedicta Odjidja. She came out of the office to speak to me and to explain to me about cases that was not in the courts register. She had a print out which I asked for a copy and she give me one to show the cases that was not in the court register I have been trying to get these cases corrected on the PNC but due to family issues I have not had a lot of time and there is still cases I would like looked into at other courts. This information was given to Woolwich Crown Court and the Judge told the CPS to look into this and address it this has not been done.

On I believe the 01 July 2014 Simon was found not guilty by the judge before the case went to trial. Due to information I had obtained. On the 02/07/2014 we made a call to the police to ask about getting my son's things back, to be told by the police officer in the case that the item they took from his home on the 25/06/2013 that the police had used to link my son to the crime, the police had damaged it when taking it from his garden so it was destroyed a few months after the case had started I still to this day cannot understand how evidence can be destroyed before a case went for trial. The police office in charge told my son he could not get it back due to this. there is also the fact in this case that the police let the person who claimed the burglary get away with insurance fraud, they pined everything on to Simon but new in the Feb 2013 police allowed people to walk out with loads of things.
