

To, who it may concern,

I am writing this letter in regards to Simon Cordell, who helped me in my time of need by giving me a place to stay and food to eat, as well as clean clothes and essentials. Simon has been a great support to me when I had nothing and noone to turn to after my family turned their back on me. Simon didn't even question the help I needed and went out of his way to help me sort my life out, allowing me to use his phone when I needed and stay at his flat. He always made sure I was ok before himself and can't thank him enough for the help he gave me when I was at my lowest, I'm thankful to have met him when I did, I really don't know where I would be now if he hadn't given me the help & support he did.

yours Sincerely

Aimee Scott
