

Q Without going into detail, were you — were you able to issue the ticket at the time?
A Not initially, no.

Q But were you able to establish a satisfactory address at the scene of him?
A Not at the scene, no, but subsequently we were able to issue a fixed penalty notice.

Q Again in general terms was Mr Cordell being co-operative?
A No.

Q What was his demeanour and how did that develop?
A I would say unco-operative. I personally found some of the language he was using towards me quite offensive, some of the comments he was making.

Q Did you call for assistance from — from a senior officer at one stage?
A Mr Cordell insisted at one point that — that an Inspector attend. Fortunately as it was, as I mentioned, a traffic operation, there was an Inspector within the sort of immediate area and an Inspector did come down and speak to Mr Cordell.

Q After the Inspector had left, were you still able — were you then able to issue the fixed penalty notice?
A No, I was not.

Q I think you eventually - is that right? - arrested him? Is that right?
A Yes. Unfortunately, I was inevitably having to deal with it by that way because, you know, he was so unco-operative.

Q But I think at the police station - is that right? - with the help of the custody sergeant you were then able to issue the fixed penalty notice?
A Yes, yes.

Q Is that right?
A Yes.

Q And I think you — you made a further check on the policy back at the police station to check it was social, domestic, and pleasure and -- and motor trade? Is that right?
A Yes. I contacted MIB, the Motor Insurance Bureau.

MR POTTINGER: Yes. If you'd just like to wait there.
