

Q Again this was a point that you raised with Mr Cordell by the roadside and he explained how the card wasn't for him working as a tradesman, rather that he has a company which acts as a middleman for tradesmen and that's why his name was on the card. Do you remember that?

A No, I do not recall that.

Q So we've got the time of the day, you've got his clothing, you've got the cards. Anything else?

A And his initial comment of course.

Q Workmen often, tradesmen, will carry tools around in a van, won't they?

A Yes. Often.

Q Any tools?

A Not that I recall, no.

Q There's no reference to tools in your statement, is there?

A No.

Q I think you were asked about this at the Magistrates' Court. There's no secret. This matter has been before the Magistrates' Court. And I think it's right you gave the same answer you've just given, you don't recall there being any tools?

A Yes. I don't recall.

Q You would have noted them?

A I would like to think so.

Q If you're noting factors which suggest that he is working as a tradesman that day, there's no way you'd have left that out, is there?

A Well, never say never, I suppose. Obviously Mr Cordell was unco-operative, you know, throughout this sort of encounter from the moment he realised I was going to be looking — dealing with the offence that I had before me. But, no, I don't recall any tools.

Q Okay. I've got a -- you spoke to the insurance company when you were by the roadside, didn't you?

A Yes, I did.

MR KENNEDY: I've got the — what I suggest is the tape of -- CD recording of this call. I just want to play an excerpt of it.

THE RECORDER: Well, is this the call that the officer makes?

MR KENNEDY: Yes.
