Dear Mr Cordell,

Re: The London Borough of Enfield v Cordell Claim number: E00ED049

We have been advised by one of your neighbours that you attempted to harass and intimidate him and his family, yesterday around 11.30pm by standing right by his door and interfering with his letter box. We have been advised that as he opened the door and saw you at his door step, you ran down the stairs.

This behaviour is not acceptable and represents a breach of the interim injunction order dated 09th January 2018 which specifically prevents you from harassing and intimidating your neighbours. We have to inform you that as a result of your conduct, we will be contacting the police and will advise them of the incident.

We would also like to warn you that should further incidents of this nature were to occur again; we will be making an urgent application for your committal at the County Court without notice. However, we hope that such measures will not be necessary and that you will continue to comply with the terms of the interim injunction order.

Yours sincerely,

Ludmilla Iyavoo Lawyer
