Subject: Re: Outcome for fail to surrender

Hi Lorraine

Thank you for the information. I have forwarded this to the barrister, Andy Locke who is covering the hearing tomorrow. I asked for the case to be removed from the list for two weeks as I have yet to hear back from the Insurance company and the prosecution but the court went ahead and listed it.

Simon must attend by 11am. His case is fourth on so if he arrives at court for 10.30am he will be in plenty of time. I will send a chaser email to the Trevor Allway this evening. He is in court 7.

If the insurance file and the disclosure from the police comes back favourably then coupled with the confirmation that Simon has no convictions for failing to surrender I will try again to get his bail conditions relaxed but I stress I can only do this once I am in receipt of the disclosure and this will be dependent on what the disclosure reveals.

I can then compile all the case papers for the defence and assess whether we can make a request for the prosecution to review the prosecution against Simon. I think that they will proceed regardless but I will try once I am in receipt of all the information and if this information assists the defence and undermines the prosecution.

I will arrange an appointment with Simon for this weekend / early next week and I hope to have some disclosure before the.

Any questions please do not hesitate to come back to me.

Regards

Josephine

Hi Josey

I just been emailed from the court the out come of the city of London case fail to surrender as you will see from the attached copy that has been sent over to me today from the court this case was dismissed.

I had to pay £5.00 to get this from the court so I will email you the copy of the receipt also and the email I sent to the court to get this dealt with I will send this over so you have copies of it..

So on Simon bail for this case there should be no fail to surrender, as he has never failed to surrender to the police or the court.

Also there are some other things on the PNC that I want to look into as there are some other errors I am sure, but I wanted to get this one dealt with 1st as this was causing a problem.
