

Enterprise Enfield News

From: Sue King (sking@enterpriseenfield.org)

To: re_wired@ymail.com

Date: Tuesday, 11 February 2014, 19:27 GMT

February 2014

News Updates

Pop Up Emporium Opened by Dragons' Den Contestant!

Local entrepreneur and Dragons' Den winner, Laban Roomes, opened Enterprise Enfield's new Pop Up Emporium in Savoy Parade, Southbury Road, Enfield Town (near Tesco's, next to the Enfield Exchange) on Tuesday 4th February. Laban won £60k investment for his gold-plating business, Goldgenie, from James Caan in 2007.

This week we have nine traders selling an array of wonderful products, many of which are handmade - retailers will alternate every fortnight. Come and browse, or pick up a Valentines gift - funky jewellery, skincare products, potted plants and flowers, personalised gift hampers, accessories - scarves and ponchos, hot pepper sauces, artisan footwear - there's also a cafe area with delicious homemade cakes, teas and coffees too! We are also organising a range of kids activities in the premises - more details soon. Click for launch photos Get the latest news on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/EnfieldEmporium>

New Biz Support Programme for Start Ups!

Enterprise Enfield and Enfield Libraries are delighted to announce the launch of a new Enterprising Libraries New Biz Programme which offers FREE support to help people start their own businesses.

The 6 week scheme includes all the help you need to prepare a viable business plan and start trading, items include: expert advice and guidance Business Adviser (for 6 weeks), business workshops, online resources and a FREE Microsoft Office 365 (Cloud) package for 1 year with training (on completion of the programme)! From business planning and marketing to bookkeeping and raising finance - you will get everything you need to get your business off to the right start - all FREE!