Hello Lorraine,

I hope this email finds you well.

I apologise for the delay in providing you with an update.

Over the past few days I have been discussing this matter with my supervisor, we hope to conclude our discussions tomorrow upon which I'll be able to provide you with a more meaningful update.

Kind regards

Hello Jamie

Maybe you can send to his work email I believe this is his work email address rorj.geoghegan@centreforsocialjustice.org.uk well that's what it says when I do a Google search on his name.

Maybe you could also get a phone number for him there not sure; but if you sent to his work email you would know he got it or if you called and was able to talk to him you would know if he even wanted to help in this, Maybe he has had the letters but know he does not need to help if he does not want to, maybe send someone round to the address you have. This is just some ideas not sure if you can use them.

Regards
