The reason he new this to be an unmarked police car was because he new the police Officer’s who was driving from seeing him on active duty within the local area.

As he drove past it changed its indication to the way he had been heading, which was a left direction.

The unmarked police car continued to follow him in turn putting on the blue lights in there vehicle, he pulled over to the left had side of the road opposite the BMW repair centre along Alma Road, on the left hand side of the pavement leading to the back entrance of Durant’s park.

A male office got out of the passenger side and approached Mr Simon Cordell drivers door, he un done his car window to a jar asking why he had been pulled over to which the police office replied he was not sure and said his college had instructed him to do so. He then went back to his police car and then reproached his car window with his college the driver of the undercover police car.

Mr Simon Cordell will state; “that he can not understand why the police officers have said that he was driving in this manner as this would have been classed as dangers driving, and he would have been punished accordingly.

Mr Simon Cordell will state; “that there is no way that some one can drive 1inch” from the car in front, off each others cars bumpers; this would have been clearly in possible. If the male’s car in front had been stopped or went to the police stating that, Mr Simon Cordell had been doing this action, would have be taken against Mr Simon Cordell for YR then surely the police would have taken the persons details in there 101 Book of reports.
