

The Appellant will state that he has attempted to engage in legitimate business activities and he has been spurned at all attempts by the Police.

The Appellant has designed a business plan, created a website, researched and developed a proposal for an open air licensed festival.