

at progress way about 01:45am on the 8th but on his own and on arrival police spoke to him out side the front gates and he then left and went home.

Mr Simon Cordell will state that allegations of misleading information is being held under his and his brothers name on the police national Computer, and he has been trying to get this rectified, He has provided his brothers medical notes as proof of this as well as stated many other facts and provided a copy of the Police National Computer and the errors that have tarnished his life agreed by the courts. He would also like to make it noted that the police already have on there system the people they were prettying while he was on curfew for some of the cases within this ASBO application and that the police had contacted other people leading up to dates of the incident numbers but not Mr Simon Cordell in relation to illegal raves. The public order team has confirmed on the phone to his mother and Essex police have too.

It has taken months to gather this information relating to the dates within this ASBO application so that Mr Simon Cordell can clear his name.
