Dear Kulwinder Johal and Jill Bayley

I do not understand why I am being ignored well this is what it feels like and I can only ask why.

When I spoke to Kulwinder Johal today on the phone, she told me that it was the court that had made an error and it was not a consent order that was sent to the court, so the Judge that made the order misread the letter Kulwinder Johal had sent the court and mistakenly approved it as a consent order.

So can I ask if there is nothing being hidden in the letter that was sent to the court why is Kulwinder Johal withholding it, if it was the court that made an error there is nothing to hide and it should be able to be corrected via the court?

It would seem only Kulwinder Johal and the court has seen a letter that the Judge deemed as a consent order,

Do you not feel we have the right to see the letter, if not can you please explain why? Also why would it have not been sent to the solicitors that were acting for my son before Legal Aid was withdrawn, why was it only to the court?

My son Mr Simon Cordell no longer has a solicitor acting for him as legal aid was withdraw, which you will be aware of. I have also stated this in emails that have been sent today, but I still feel I am being ignored, and the only reason I can think of why I am being ignored is something is written in the letter that has been sent to the court that you don't want us to see, or why would you withhold it?

Can this issue please be addressed as a matter of urgency and a copy of the letter sent to the court forwarded via this email?

I do feel we have a right to see what was written to the court for them to make such an order and word it the way it has been, moreover listed your letter as Consent Order approved.

Could you please address this matter as a matter of urgency?

Regards

Dear Jill Bayley

I have been given your email regarding an issue I have, I believe you are the manager of Kulwinder Johal, Kulwinder Johal is dealing with a case for Enfield Council which relates to my son Mr Simon Cordell.

It would seem a letter which was deemed by the court and Judge as a consent order was sent to the court by Kulwinder Johal. I have requested that the letter be sent to me via this email as we have never seen it.

I do have Authority to address things for my son Simon Cordell, but it would seem I am being ignored, which my request to be sent the letter that was sent to the court by Kulwinder Johal.

Please see below a list of emails sent which there has only been one reply, with all the information for the case.

Could you please address this matter as a matter of urgency?

I look forward to your reply to this matter.

Regards

Dear Kulwinder Johal

I know you have read the below email so cannot understand why you have not replied and sent over the letter sent to the court which they received on the 05/12/2019 and deemed it to be a consent order.

I have just made a call to Tyrer Roxburgh Solicitors who are no longer dealing with this case as legal aid was withdrawn which you will be aware of.

Mr Ahmed is on leave so I have asked Sean Shanmuganathan to call me back, as he is the one who called me last night to explain regarding the court order which was received in there office on the 11/12/2019 which he forwarded me the court order over via my email last night.

I do not understand why you are not sending me the letter, which was sent to the court for this court order to be made up.

Could you please forward me the letter sent to the court. You did ask me on the phone call we had this morning you would need an Authority letter which you have had so there is no reason the letter can not be sent to me, as you have had what you asked for.

In addition, can you please forward it to Sean Shanmuganathan sean@tyrerroxburgh.co.uk as he does know about my son's case and the letter can then be added to there file, as Mr Ahmed is on leave, he will not be able to deal with this until his return. I have CC in both Mr Ahmed and Sean Shanmuganathan all the emails.

Could this matter please be addressed as a matter of urgency?

Dear Kulwinder Johal

As you will all ready be aware Legal Aid funding has been withdrawn from this case, as you stated in your in your letter dated the 21/10/2019 to Mr Ahmed, you had been instructed to discontinue the claim from your clients Enfield Council, so Mr Ahmed is no longer dealing with this matter.

You have had the letter of Authority, which you asked for on the phone today and received this, which has been confirmed in your below email. However, there has always been Authority on Enfield Councils systems for me to address matters for my son, Mr Simon Cordell.

I would like to see the letter that that has been sent to the court which the court received on the 05/12/2019, which the court has deemed as a consent order for claim number FOOED222. No consent order has been agreed or signed, so I cannot understand how Edmonton Country Court, more so a judge has deemed you letter as a consent order, which is stated in the court order dated 06/12/2019.

Also there is a large issue your client Enfield Council instructed you for this claim to be discontinue, I will state the court order is far from being discontinue as you have it would seem instructed the court for it to be adjourned generally with liberty to restore this is far from what your clients asked to be done on this case.

Dear Kulwinder Johal

I am writing this email with regard to a telephone call that I received tonight from my son Mr Simon Cordell solicitor, Tyrer Roxburgh Solicitors.

I was forwarded a court order dated the 09/12/2019 from Edmonton Country Court, heard on the 06/12/2019.

It would seem that Edmonton Country Court received a consent order at the court on the 5th December 2019, and Deputy District Judge Brown made a court order on the 06/12/2019.

Can you please forward this consent order over via this email ASAP as we have never seen it yet alone agreed to it or signed it?

As you will be aware, no consent order has been agreed upon or signed, so how has the court been sent a consent order by you?

Regards

Lorraine Cordell
