Hi Lorraine

Are the insurance company aware that Simon is awaiting trial for burglary. I assume you have disclosed this to them. I would have to disclose this fact to them before requesting information and informer to do this I would require Simon's signed written consent.

The next stage is getting the case and listed for mention.

Any questions please email me direct.

Thanks

Josephine

Hi josey

This is the manager now dealing with the insurance claim Mr Patel put in for the building that the party was in.

He is setting up a meeting with Mr Patel asking him to sign a form that would allow him to disclose any information to any person that has cause to see the claim. But not telling Mr Patel that he has spoke to us or would like a meeting with us.

He said some other things also about the claim Mr Patel put in, he said that in Feb 2013 he did put a claim in and was asked by the insurance to do some things which Mr Patel did not do so the insurance closed the claim down and Mr Patel did not do anything else with that claim to say he wanted to keep it opened.

Then after May 2013 Mr Patel again contacted the insurance and said there was a next claim.

In the invoice Mr Patel has handed into the insurance it is all in one invoice for one claim.

The Insurance Company also have not paid him out yet for the claim.

He told me to contact the solicitor dealing with the case as he did not want to step on anyone feet and see about a meeting to be setup.

Please see the below email from the Manger dealing with the insurance claim.

Lorraine
