

4. Is Mohammed likely to be a witness as to sale of the items? No because he will have to be advised to obtain independent legal advice as he could incriminate himself

This was better left to cross examination at trial as too late then to produce invoices but Simon obviously does not agree. This will be an example of Simon making a further tactical mistake as he did during the comments to police at his address and again in interview.

The Judge and prosecution will be influenced in making decisions in this case based on Simon's conduct before arrest, in interview and his previous convictions.

The point that Simon is missing is that a prima facie case exists and this case will go to trial. Simon should re-read his interview and his attitude in his interview where he effectively suggests it serves the owner of the premises right for having his premises burgled.

If Simon had not made such foolish comments when he was arrested and instead followed sound legal advice at the police station then we could have made representations to review the case but based on his admissions at his address, coupled with his interview this was impossible.

At the start of this case Simon was very much mistaken with regards to the law. Tactics and timing are important in cases. Simon does not want to allow Solicitors to make tactical decisions so the best of luck to him.

Once I get an email back from Jemi re the conference and section 8 application I will be listing this case to have the legal representation order revoked.

During the telephone conversation today Simon again was abusive, he questioned my professional integrity, my ability to defend my clients and he threatened to slander my name. I heard him loud and clear Lorraine.

All I can say is he has a very short memory. I know exactly how many times I have represented Simon and how many of those cases have resulted in a charge or a conviction.

I am duty solicitor at court tomorrow and I will email Jemi in the morning. I will request an urgent response from him and I will then let you know when the case will be listed.

Kind regards

Josephine

Hi Josey

Simon has asked me to write this email so I am just writing what has been asked and the facts he is saying. As you are aware Simon is not great with Emails or letters and replying to them due to his writing and spelling.

Simon has said he is not treating you in anyway, yes he did say he was going to put his papers on Facebook to ask people what they feel about his case. He would then be able to obtain feedback from the general public.

He feels there have been many errors in his case, some of these errors he wants me to list below.
