

There was also a time in Nov 2013 when my van was sized this was due to KGM telling the police I was not insured due to the police telling KGM that I had tools in my van. Which was a lie by the police as I did not have anything in my van. Kelly Tiller from the trade section was dealing with this and a few days later I got a letter from KGM saying they was going to cancel my policy. As you can understand I was very upset over this as I had done nothing wrong.

At this time lots of calls was both made to KMG and Broadsure to stop the cancelation of my insurance policy, I spoke to Kelly Tiller many times but she believed the police and I had no say in the matter. The police were off duty so I could not speak to them and Kelly Tiller was saying unless I could prove I did not have any tools in my van then the insurance policy would be cancelled which was very unfair as I had done nothing wrong I new I never had any tools.

But I also asked Kelly Tiller did the police tell her what tools was meant to be in my van, to which she said no. KGM was not even aware I had mechanics trade on my policy so if my mechanics tools had been in my van at the time my insurance would still have been cancelled which to me what was the point in having insurance?

I then spoke to a wonderful operator at the police when I called told her what had gone on and was told by her to go to the police compound as when any vehicles are taken there, they have to do a full list of items that are in the vehicles as they are in fact legible if something goes missing. Over that weekend I sent emails to the compound and forwarded them to Broadsure as my insurance was due to be cancelled on the Monday. On Monday I got an email from Broadsure direct asking me to go to the compound as Kelly Tiller had no luck getting a reply from them also, and once there to call Kelly Tiller due to the time on the Monday I got the email it would have been to late to go the compound and get a call to Kelly Tiller as she would have ended work for that day so I sent an email saying I would be going there early the next morning. I went the next day and asked to speak to the manager of the compound who in fact looked up my van and said nothing was in there, there was not tools I called Kelly Tiller and the manager of the compound spoke to her and confirmed there was nothing in the van when it was taken there by police and that I had put thing in the van when I had taken it out of the compound.
