Hi Jamie

thank you for the document but can i please ask something has PC G notebook been edited in anyway as from the images they really look to have been edited, i have shown a few people what you sent me and each have said the same thing.

Also I knew PC G said my son was arrested because he would not give his address, which is clearly wrong because my son did give his address and it is clearly in the notebook.

I just told you the wrong court as I was thinking he said this in the appeal case at the crown court when my son won his case, But it was not it was in the lower court when PC G said this as I just checked both the appeal case notes and the lower courts clerk notes, and it is clearly in the lower court clerks notes when PC G said this, so when the appeal came he changed what he said to the reason why my son was arrested.

(See below clerk notes lower court)

I established his name – had difficulties with his address.
In the end arrested him as he would not provide his address.
At Peckham custody he provided details I issued penalty notice.

I believe if you check the clerk court notes you will see this clearly. So why was my son arrested unlawfully?

Why did he even tell the appeal judge he did not have a notebook?

Seeing as we never had any of PC G's statements could I get them, the one that he made when he got back to the police station, the one that should have come when we were told about a court date. and if i am allowed the statement he wrote in regards to the complaint, i sure he must have made a statement when the 1st investigation was ongoing when he was still a police officer before he left, and any other information that can be given, maybe the police officer statement that was with PC G on that day and maybe his notebook, also the inspectors who was called to the road side and never done anything, maybe his statement and notebook, as there was more then one officer that day and they should have an account what happened.
