Dear Ludmilla Iyavoo

I was not talking about the committal application of the 20.04.2018, I am talking about the injunction ordered itself that enabled you to put the committal application dated the 20.04.2018 into court. This is what we are disputing has been served, and yes I know you have a statement from the person that was meant to have personally served it.

Regards

Lorraine Cordell

Mrs Cordell,

Just to clarify, you are mentioning that the Council should copy you to all correspondence it sends to your son Simon Cordell.

Your request raised earlier today relates to a committal application which we lodged in the Edmonton County Court on 20.04.2018. However the service of that document was effected by the Court and not the Council. Therefore as far as we are concerned the committal application was duly served upon Simon Cordell as it was sent by the Court on the address recorded against their system.

You are welcome to raise the issue of service at the committal hearing but our view is that your email of today acknowledges the fact that your son has been received and therefore has been served with the committal application and secondly this application was sealed and served by the Edmonton County Court.

Kind regards,
