Hi Lorraine,

I'm just catching up with my emails now.

I have not received anything new from Enfield Council as of yet.

He will need to attend, unless you have a medical note / doctors letter explaining that he does not like to leave the house...

I am available tomorrow or Wednesday anytime if you and him wish to attend the office. Any time would be fine by me.

Please let me know.

Thanks.

Kind regards,

Dear Trishna

I hope you had a good holiday, I did email you the below email when you was away, and was wondering if there is any update, Simon called me today and is worried regarding the court hearing and if he will need to attend. I know also he would like to see you or maybe have a call with you before the court date.

I was also wondering if there have been any updates from Enfield Council as they should have by now given a bundle and was wondering if anything new is in it.

Regards
