

The organiser then relocated to progress way. Police are well aware organisers relocate if the police close an event down.

The claimant was nowhere near Essex on this day; he was not involved in the organisation or supply of equipment which the police are well aware of. Yet the police want to blame him and they was not going to stop until they got the ASBO on him and did not care what they covered up in the process of the information they had, I believe this is also why there is nothing really for the 06th June within the bundle for the ASBO application.

And why when asked over and over why we were never allowed to see the police officers packet note books, for any of the dates in there application.

20/06/2014 1 Falcon Park Neasden Lane NW10:

The claimant's is alleged to have been involved in the organisation and or supplied equipment for an illegal rave, the claimant disputes what the police have said, on this date the claimant had been contacted and asked if he would hire a sound system for a gentleman's birthday party. The claimant agreed to do so; the sound system and van were collected from the claimant's home. The claimant's terms and conditions were agreed and invoice signed and a deposit was given to him.

At around 01:00 hours the claimant received a phone call from the person he had hired the sound system to; the person stated that the sound system and van was being seized by the police.

The claimant was very upset and could not at this stage understand why the police was seizing his equipment and van.

The claimant asked the location and took down the address, he had to get up and get dressed and leave his home it took him around an hour to reach the location, upon approaching the address he had been given he saw there was a lot of police around, he parked his car up got out and went up to the police to speak to them to find out what was going on, he showed the police the terms and conditions of hirer, and the invoice.

The police at this point allowed the claimant into the building where he continued to speak to the police, the sound system had not been put away and the police allowed the claimant to start packing it away into his van, but the police stated they were confiscating it until they had looked into the matter.

The claimant gave the police all his contact information, and also took down the police officer information. About a week later the police contacted the claimant and told him he was allowed to come and pick his van and equipment up from the police station.

The claimant did not knowingly supply equipment for an illegal rave; he believed the hire was for a birthday party and it was all above board.

The claimant did not cause any antisocial behaviour on the 20th June 2014.

19/07/2014 Carpet right A10 Enfield:

As stated previously by the claimant he was not involved in the organisation or supplied equipment on this date. And the claimant totally disagrees in regards to what the police have said in their application. The claimant on this day was driving down A10 he was heading towards McDonald's, as he was passing carpet right he saw the police outside and he believed he saw a friend who he knew had been homeless, he was on the wrong side of the road so went down towards Southbury Road where he knew he could turn his car around. He parked his vehicle and walked
