Hello Jas Chadha

Thank you for the email the date is booked for the 08/09/2013 at the cost of £200 out of that we will cover £40 in fuel but if it goes over £40 which I hope it will not then you will have to cover the extra cost for the fuel.

Matt will be the electrician for the day and that's also covered in the cost.

Daisy we have spoken to Jas and he said to ask you for a Face book event page and other event pages as we maybe able to help with promotion of the event.

Many Thanks, Simon
