Who makes decisions about housing applications and allocating social rented housing

This section sets out who will make decisions or assessments on applications for social rented housing and allocating it.

Type of decision and / or assessment	Who makes the decision
Determining eligibility for a Council and	Enfield's Housing Options and Advice housing association home	Service:
	Officer level
Deciding that a Housing Register	Enfield's Housing Options and Advice
application should be cancelled	Service:
	Officer level
Assessing and prioritising housing	Enfield's Housing Options and Advice
applications	Service: Officer level
Assessing size of home needed by an	Enfield's Housing Options and Advice applicant	Service:
applicant	Officer level
Assessing Health and Wellbeing issues	Enfield's Housing Options and Advice
Assessing Health and Weilbeing Issues	Service:
	Medical Assessment Team: Officer level
Assessing housing and support needs –	Mental Health Housing Assessment people with mental health problems	Panel and Mental Health Housing Panel
Assessing housing and support needs –	Learning Difficulties Housing and people with learning difficulties	Resources Panel
Assessing housing and support needs –	Housing Options Panel people with physical disabilities, visual impairments and hearing impairments
Deciding priority for applicants who fall	Exceptions and Special Applications outside the statutory reasonable	Housing Panel preference categories	Eventions and Cresic Applications Deciding which applicants should be given urgent priority for housing (e.g.	Exceptions and Special Applications Housing Panel urgent estate regeneration moves, exceptional and emergency transfers)
Deciding when an applicant's	Enfield's Housing Options and Advice reasonable preference / housing priority	Service:
will be changed	Officer level
Deciding how many lettings will be	Enfield's Housing Options and Advice made to each of the housing quotas (i.e.	Service:
children leaving care move-on from	Head of Service supported housing, Enfield's Fostering and Adoption Panels quota cases, etc.)

Enfield's Housing Allocations Scheme – November 2015

Page 81 of 117