Dear Mr Cordell

Thank you for your email. I am afraid that I am not prepared to discuss the claim without you putting in an email what your allegations are. I do not require a lot of documentation with your email, just a few core documents will suffice.

I strongly advise you however to seek independent legal advice. The Law Society will be able to recommend lawyers local to you. Your claim appears to be complex and, more importantly, some or all of it may be time barred as a consequence of the operation of limitation.

Kind regards

Dear Mr David Knapp

As Enfield Council understands I have problems writing so much in an email due to the years that i have been forced to suffer. My mother does help me when writing to people but not even she can explain what i have been put through in detail as she does not live with me.

It is impractical for me to start to explain the breach's of my Human Rights that have occurred over the last Eight Years by email to which I am claiming for and all the dates involved to each offence that has taken place let alone the corruption and criminal offences that i have been forced to undergo.

I do not intend to make all communication to you by phone alone but to balance the weight of the scenario to which we are both trying to resolving. so, both phone and email would be best and or a meeting to take place.

I have built a website that documents most of what I am claiming about and I have put the files under Simon's Cases under the menu bar at;

Website: Horrificcorruption.com

You can take a look there if you wish to / Audio and Diary are a good place to start.

As you may have noticed I am using a Yahoo email account I also have a Hotmail account and both are limited to the amount of documentation that any person can send and these limits make using emails useless as I have collected a lot of evidence to support my claim that I believe would be mandatory for you to receive.

When using my website, I am allowed to send campaigns that have no limit to what can be sent by email and my intentions are for me to soon upload the last stages of my defence that is labelled as "Report Years" this is where the general public will be able to interact with what has happened to me illegally and unmorally. I hope to have the Report years section completed by latter today. Once this is finished i can send to you and all other who were or should be involved the documents that you and they require. I believe the general public will help me pin point out more than what i can do alone.

I have already won all the case's brought against me at court and will not except the Enfield Council's wrong doings to myself. especially in the magnitude to which they have committed.

I wish to speak to you on the phone today so I can direct you to some of the relevant parts contained within the website Horrificcorruption.com before i go public for the first time in the hope of other options arising.

As asked earlier will you please call me by phone

From a civilian at home
Mr. S.P. Cordell

Dear Mr Cordell

Thank you for your email. As I stated in my earlier email, I would rather communicate in writing rather than by telephone. Please therefore can you supply by email to me details of your claim against my client. I cannot usefully say anything until I know what your claim is about. I am sorry but experience tells me that it is better to get clarity at an early stage in any claim.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards

Dear Mr Cordell

Would you kindly note that I have been instructed by the LB Enfield as a consequence of your letter of 10 August 2020. Your recent conversation with Kay Osborne at Enfield refers. However, for the future, could you please send all communications in this matter to me.

Firstly, an apology. I was instructed in mid December and having spoken with my client drafted a letter to you that was to be sent in hard copy form from my office confirming my instruction. That letter was due to go out on 23 December but unfortunately was not printed and sent out (I currently work remotely) to you. My apologies for the delay therefore which was Covid and Christmas related. I hope that all further communications can be by email?

Turning to your claim itself I note that in your letter you referred to documentation and evidence being completed, presumably that means collated by you. I assume you will then send a Letter of Claim setting out in detail the basis of what I assume is a claim for compensation? Can you please confirm and give me a timescale as to when the Letter is likely to be received by me? Once received, I can consider with my client the way forward.

I anticipate this will be a complex matter and my preferred method of communication is by email to ensure clarity of expression and provide a record of what our respective positions and understandings may be.

I hope you might agree that this is the best way forward and I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards
