

Chapter 60

13/09/2014; The folder got left in the hall way;

It had somehow got placed in the hallway and then left opened, so that anyone could have looked into it, she got shocked to see this had been able to happen and also found that inside the document there was full details of Mr. S. Cordell inside of it and also that of other people personal names, that should have gotten protected from this occurring; under the data protection act 1998, the police should have never left this folder outside any address, which would give anyone accesses to it.

My mother, in that moment, on noticing the folder in the hall way, unattended that is to strengthen and further left in the condition, to what it had got found, also understood that this was because of the police officers, misplaced conduct.

She did not know what to do at first, she got simply shocked, at what she had found and decided to take it back to where it got addressed from, on taking a closer look the folder claimed the address of New Scotland Yard Headquarters, so she took it to Edmonton Police Stations, lost property, so that she could hand the folder back to themselves, as it never got served in accordance of the law and now had become lost and found property.

I did not accept the folder, from the police.

My mother or I was not sure, if any papers were missing, which should have got placed within side of the folder and as explained by the next day when my mother had arrived to mine, she had found the folder opened in the hallway.

I believe that the police understood, that this was wrong in law and that when I did not accept the documents in being served, that they should have then taken them right back with themselves to where they had just come from, for me to guess that place I would say, the police station or civic centre, so to have rearranged for a true served document to be re issued.
