

property store so that they are for safe keeping and then when they come to collect they get given back that.

Caller Assistant: Right that is OK it is just that when we got a call of the officer when he had Mr. Cordell at the roadside, he advised us that he was carrying tools in his vehicle.

Police Officer: Well I can not comment on that.

Caller Assistant: No, I know that you can not.

Police Officer: But what I can go on is the information on that seizer notice and there was nothing noted about the gentlemen removing anything or there is not anything left in the van, that is; all that I can say.

Caller Assistant: That is fine no worries, so if you could just reply to my email then and that would be great.

Police Officer: OK, then.

Caller Assistant: Yes, cheers and good bye.

I was in turn found not guilty and I can remember the Judge telling the police officer to wait outside of the court room with the rest of the criminals. Not to long afterwards I spoke to DVLA and had the points and driving ban redacted.

In this time I could not travel to the other side of London to visit my partner. I won the case at appeal after the police officer lied in 2 different courts. A Police complaint went in, and they mishandled incorrectly.

When I had to collect the van about the Brixton case on the 16/11/2013 and I had to pay again, when I clearly had insurance.

The case is now being overseen by the IPCC due to what went on and the Complaint is still ongoing up and till date.
