

which was reckless and caused extreme disregard for my and other human life's creating a breach of many human rights as listed below with the relevant issues of concern in regards to each set of human rights that have been breached.

Article 2 Right to life

Article 2 requires that the Government take steps to safeguard the lives of everyone within the UK's jurisdiction inclusive of my self Mr. Simon Cordell:

by having effective criminal legislation (i.e. by making murder and manslaughter an offence so that to be sure that no person has the right to kill any other human being this is by all means within European treaties, to which the United Kingdom is apart off, without doubt and is inclusive of attempted manslaughter or attempted murder) and properly enforcing it; by requiring the police to take reasonable steps to protect an individual's life if they know or ought to know that there is a real and immediate risk to a person's life - although this should not impose an impossible or disproportionate burden on the authorities; and by requiring the State to take appropriate steps to prevent accidental deaths by having a legal and administrative framework in place to provide effective deterrence against threats to the right to life.

I Mr. Simon Cordell have attached to this document and have that of video evidence supporting the fact of members of the metropolitan police who were in attendance at my home address after I had made an emergency 999 call in regards to myself being a victim to a threat to my life by way of two gentlemen pulling a gun on my self out side of my home in regards to an illegal rave that had taken place in a warehouse that they stated was there own and that they had seen the intelligence in the metropolitan police website that had been published about similar offences, making them believe I had some think or that I may have been connected to do with there incident, the information in the police website was wrong in law and in danger my life and was not pulled down.

Article 3 Freedom from torture and inhuman or degrading treatment

I Mr. Simon Cordell have suffered a servicer breach in regards to the prohibitions relating to article three of my human rights leaving me with memories of torture and inhuman treatment while being treated in a degrading manner by way of being punished for allegations of a criminal offence and then having such information published in the public domain; a punishment that was and should have never been justified as there was no breach of the United Kingdom Laws and such intelligence that does in fact create the bases of evidence to support such claims is manufactured
