Importance: High

Dear DJ Dias,

I was wondering if you can help at this time the hearing of the 09/08/2018 there is still an outstanding order to be sealed by the court. I know my son's solicitor has been trying to address this with Enfield Council and as yet has had no reply from them regarding the amended order. I know my son's solicitor has sent the amended order over to the court directly.

I have also been working with them regarding the housing move for my son, but am being told they will only move him to a like to like property; this will be going to the housing panel on the 28/09/2018 regarding the move for my son, I know in Enfield Council order that was made up they included in this regarding the order from the court my son is moved I believe this was to give my son more weight with the housing panel.

My son is not at all well and the and I believe he does need a two bedroom property so he can get the support he needs from his family as I said in court on the 09/08/2018, I am not just saying this to be able to get my son a two bedroom, I am saying this so my son can have family with him all the time so that I can try and get my son back to some sort of a normal life and the help he needs.

It is at this point that Enfield Council does not seem to want to reply to my son's solicitor's amended order that a two bedroom is looked into they have put everything else but that in there order, I am trying my hardest to work with everyone so my son gets the help that is needed and I do feel a two bedroom is needed so there can be someone for my son at all times as I feel that this is the best option for my son.

If you can look into the amended order attached I would be most grateful as I believe if it is added to the order it would give more weight when it goes to the panel on 28/09/2018.

Regards

Lorraine Cordell
