

were going to severe a noise abatement order, they have produced the paperwork and asked the male for his name to which he has refused to provide his details, It was explained that without the name of a person from the venue the EO's are unable to serve the paperwork. As we have been unable to progress this line of action, I have made the request to Simon Cordell to turn the music down."

Mr Simon Cordell will state; "that Inspector Hamill: States he approached the gate and spoke to security, but the police are not sure if they were in fact security, police state in there statements that the people on the gate introduced themselves as volunteers. The case is the police did not know who they was they could have been security/volunteers or organisers. The police only believed Tyrone Benjamin and Simon Cordell could have been the organisers, which is not the case.

Mr Simon Cordell will state that Inspector Hamill: Asked to speak to an organiser and has said that a member of said staff disappeared into the occupied building. For a male Inspector Hamill recognised to be Simon Cordell to approach him. This could not have been the case as Mr Simon Cordell will state that he was not in the building and that he was walking up to the building when he was approach by Inspector Hamill and others.

Mr Simon Cordell will state; "that he does remember this day 08th June 2014 a friend who had stayed at his who had forgotten to take his set of keys with him, when he left his flat prior to the 06th and 07th 8th June 2014."

He will state that his friend had contacted him and told him that he need his keys back and wanted him to meet him at progress way were he had been residing and asked Mr Simon Cordell to drop the keys to him."

Mr Simon Cordell will state; "that he was given a post code and had never been to this location before. That he travelled by car and parked outside a company that he remembers to be tops tiles, as he approached he could hear music, after finding the address given to him he had to walk down a side ally leading to the front gates to be seen by a man he now know to be Inspector Hamill from the statement provided he asked him his name to which Mr Simon Cordell will state that he gave no reply to his question."

Mr Simon Cordell will state; "that as he see the police leave the people on the gate he was already chatting to him and asked Mr Simon Cordell to follow him to the road side which he did, at no time did Mr Simon Cordell talk to any police officers or any other person(s) as he felt he had not done any think wrong and new how the police was with him and he just did not want any problems."

Mr Simon Cordell will state; "that he was the police officer was with other people, who Mr Simon Cordell now know to be environmental officers due to the statements. Mr Cordell remembers feeling like he was being accused of being an organiser by the way in which the police officer was talking to him.

This is the reason he did not want to talk to the police as he new how they was with him from over many years of being harassed by the police.

Mr Simon Cordell will state; "that he just wanted to leave so he decided at this point to cross the road to the local petrol station and call his friend to come out side to give him his keys back.

Mr Simon Cordell will state; "that at no time did he speak to police and give any details and did not take any paper work from anyone, the police did not follow him across the road to the petrol station where he called his friend to come and get his keys.

Mr Simon Cordell will state; "that he did notice sound coming from said occupied building and at this point in time he would like every one to make a note that he did not hire any sound equipment or any other form of equipment or neither was he involved in the organisation of any events on dates of the 6th 7th or the 8th June 2014.

He then gave his friend their keys and headed home, at no point did Mr Simon Cordell except any paper work of any person nor did he give his name or personal details to any other body, for his personal details to be on any official piece of paper.

Mr Simon Cordell will state that he would like to ask for said paperwork Noise abatement order."

A/Insp Hamill 201566 states; "Inspector Hamill: Asked "It's Simon isn't it?" to which he replied "yes he then further asked "Simon Cordell" to which he has indicated that it was but not verbally confirmed the answer."

Mr Cordell will state; "As stated above at no point did he speak to any police office to give his name and do not under stand how he could have done so in a none verbally manner as he did not shake his head or shake the police offices hand to indicate this to be true. Police states that Mr Simon Cordell replied yes than states but would not verbally confirm the answer"

A/Insp Hamill 201566 states; "To which Mr Simon Cordell refused to provide his details."

Mr Cordell will state; "A/Insp Hamill further verifies that he did not in fact speak to him self."

A/Insp Hamill 201566 states; "It was explained that without the name of a person from the venue the EO's are unable to serve the paperwork, as we have been unable to progress this line of action."

Mr Simon Cordell will state; "The police state they see him on the 7th June 2014 walking up to the front gates in pc Shinick statements time stamped 01:59 7th June 14 and no he was in attendance with Inspector Hamill at 02:00 hours on the 8th June 2014in true fact and that he had walked back to were his car was parked on the Great Cambridge Road Enfield, Mr Cordell believes that if he had walked into the building it would have been in there notes, so their for see him leave after not gaining entry to a friends place of residence. The police also understand that this party had been going on since the 6th June 2014.

Mr Simon Cordell will state; that he did not speak to any one as said in there statement and that he did not accept any noise abatement order section 80 as he was not an organiser neither an occupier nor did he accept any money from any event on the 6th 7th 8th June 2014.

A/Insp Hamill 201566 states; "I have made the request to Simon Cordell to turn the music down."

"I had left the grounds and waited in the petrol station for my friend to come out of progress way to me next to the petrol station and get his keys, then left and went home."

A/Insp Hamill 201566 states; "During the course of the 8th of June 2014 we had approximately 40 calls complaining about the noise."

Mr Simon Cordell will state: "That he did only attended progress way on the 08th for about 30 mins max and left to go home.
