

Officer AAaron King States: Whilst talking with Mr. Cordell there were small groups of teenagers arriving at the site and entering via a break in the fence, (the gates still being shut at this time). I got Ps Ames to get units to us to prevent further people trespassing on the land and to discourage people from attending the location and exited the venue to a wait.

Mr Simon Cordell will state that he should not be accountable for other people's actions that he took no part in. For people to further be trespassing some one would have had to be arrested for trespass in the beginning, who is this person.

Officer AAaron King States: Mr. Cordell's exit with the sound equipment. Whilst waiting I radioed for the on-call Superintendent so I could get the various Rave legislation approved so that I could seize the sound equipment and enforce a rave cordon on Millmarsh Lane to prevent people entering.

Mr Simon Cordell will state that Inspector AAaron has been told this third party and he knows that he has stated the true facts in his statement's of truth, that Mr Simon Cordell was present in a car and would not able to carry such large sound equipment.

Officer AAaron King States: Whilst stood by the venue a number of people began leaving, most were laughing but the odd one was blaming police for stopping the event. Suddenly there was a huge number of mainly teenagers walking towards me from the direction of Mollison Avenue. Apparently this group had all arrived together from the nearby railway station. Straight away some of this group headed straight towards us saying they were going to storm the place. I had been joined by a few team officers and we advised them that the rave had been closed down and they would not be allowed to enter. There was some verbal confrontation but the large group which was up to 100 strong moved off round the corner with some overheard saying they would break in round the corner.

Mr Simon Cordell will state that at no point did he take part in any one else's Anti Social Behaviour and he did not cause Anti social Behaviour.

Officer AAaron King States: As they began to move off Mr. Cordell stood by the break in the fence and shouted words to the effect of, "Come on, there is more of you".

And he quickly went up to Mr Cordell and told him to stop or he would arrest him to prevent a breach of the peace. At this Mr Cordell went back and stayed away.

Mr Simon Cordell will state that at no point of time would he say this and he would never in danger another person's life in such a manner. Mr Simon Cordell will state that he would never encourage activities that would lead to incitement of a riot, and as there
