

A PC Geoghegan decided to then do a full search of myself and of the inside of my van, on him doing so he found the business card that I had previously made for my friend on my dashboard

On PC Geoghegan doing this I passed him my own mobile phone so that he could speak to my insurance companies as I had called them while he got engaged in my van.

I could hear him speaking to the employees on the phone and then explaining that I have social and domestic and a motor trade policy in place this did include high performance cars, my insurance company was adamant to the police officer that I got covered to drive the van now then in question. With this information being provided to the police officer he decided to say that I would not get covered if I had tools of another trade on me, to which I did not.

He decided to seize my van because he had found the business card that I had made for dean to do with painting, so I refused to get out of the van and surrender my keys to him.

Eventfully he also decided to arrest me for a breach of the peace.

On finally being booked into the police station I had no additional property with me and got held till the next days early hours of the morning with finally being charged for driving with no insurance as the officer claimed that my insurance policy was not in restraints of the policy underwriting.

When I got finally realised I had to go and pick my van up from the police car compound, in doing so I decided to recorded in audio format the ongoings,

What did in fact happen was I asked to speak to the car compounds manager who is a civilian, I asked him to see a copy of the van's seizer notice, the reason I had done this was because it would show any belongings that got left in the van as they have got to get signed for by the arresting or seizing police officer.

In the car compounds manager helping me with my request he also noticed that there was no other tools of the trade within side of the van and that it got signed that I never took anything out of the van, I collected the van and then headed back to my home.

So on the 14/11/2013; I had to yet again attend court to defend myself from their wrongful allegations.

What in fact did happen to me is that I got left in amazement by being found guilty of the offences after the PC Geoghegan stood and gave evidence from his police note book from the day.

Being upset in knowing that I was right and all I did have been business cards that I had made for deans own company, I explained to the judge that
