Good afternoon

I trust you are well.

The lawyer for the Council telephoned me again today and I explained the situation. I have today written a letter to the Council which is attached and sent a copy to Simon Cordell also attached.

I think what will next happen is the Legal Aid contact us and then seek to terminate the Public Funding.

Kind regards

Mr. Ronak Ahmed LL.B, LL.M

Dear Mr Cordell

RE: Your Housing Possession Matter

Please find enclosed a letter dated 5 November 2019 sent to the London Borough of Enfield confirming that you do not agree to their proposal to withdraw the claim. Additionally, we have informed the Legal Aid Agency of the offer made by the Council and it is likely that they will withdraw the Public Funding shortly as they will consider that further costs are not justified.

We did leave a voicemail for you on 1 Nov 2019 at 16:16 to see if you had changed your mind after calming down but to date you have not contacted us back. You may recall that the previous telephone conversation was terminated abruptly due to your conduct.

Yours faithfully

rahmed

Dear Sirs

RE: LB Enfield v Simon Cordell
CLAIM: F00ED222

Further to recent telephone conversations, we can confirm that we have conveyed the contents of your letter dated 21 October 2019 to both our client and his mother. We remind you that our client suffers from serious mental health issues and there is currently no litigation friend appointed which places us in difficulties in relation to disposing of this matter.

Our client has instructed us that he does not agree to the terms as stipulated in your above letter. The reason for this is that our client feels a great injustice has been inflicted upon him due to the false allegations founding the current claim and by it being discontinued, our Client is being deprived of his day in court.

As discussed, you may file a notice of discontinuance to the Court immediately or wait until the hearing on 12 December 2019 and ask the Court to dismiss the Claim. Should Public Funding be terminated, please note that we will not be in attendance at that hearing but is it likely that our client will attend.

We will of course, update you should our instructions change but this is unlikely to be the case.

Yours faithfully
