OUR REF: 1401596899

Date: 01/10/2014

Dear Mr Cordell

Offence of used a motor vehicle without insurance on 01/01/2014
Date of conviction 28/07/2014

Thank you for your email received on 12/09/2014. You state you did not know about the court hearing until after the court had started to hear the case. You may be able to make a statutory declaration that you were unaware of court proceedings.

You have 21 days from the date on which you became aware of the case to make a declaration. If the court decides that it was not reasonable to expect you to make the declaration within this period, it may accept a late declaration made out of time.

You can make a declaration at your local magistrates' court and must attend in person to make the declaration. It can not be done in your absence.

If you make a declaration which you know or believe to be untrue, you could be convicted of perjury, a criminal offence punished with imprisonment of up to two years. Any financial impositions and penalty points remain valid and enforcement of financial impositions will continue until a declaration has been made.

Following the making of a declaration, the prosecution may decide to restart proceedings and the summons may be reissued. You could be given another court date when the matter will be heard.

Yours sincerely,

N Williams-Burton
Administration Officer

Above is a picture of the reply where you say I have 21 days to file a statutory declaration due to me being unaware of the court processing.

I did not know about this court case. I have been wrongfully convicted and have points on my licence, which should not be there.

In the email dated the 12/09/2014, I asked for my case to be listed in order that I could do the following

1. Application to set aside the conviction
2. Re-open the case

The reason for this is due to I have been wrongfully convicted as I did in fact have insurance. As shown in the attached file.

Please can you list my case in court so I can put the Application to set aside the conviction, Re-open the case that I have been wrongfully convicted for.

This matter is urgent. I cannot resolve this matter until the case is listed before either a District Judge or Magistrates so I would appreciate your cooperation. This is causing me stress. Can you please resolve this legal matter by listing the case for an application to set aside the conviction? I can then forward my documents to the relevant prosecuting authority.

Regards

Simon Cordell

Dear Sir or Madam

I have tried to call the court on a number of occasions regarding my conviction and sentence for no insurance but the phone just rings when I press the number given to ask about this case the telephone number I am calling is 0208 955 0555. I have now found out the information to the case but pressing number 7 the lady I spoke to did in fact try and put me to a manager but that also just ring then cut me off. So I called back again and asked her if she could give me the information which she did.

I am making this request to have my case listed in order that I can do the following:-

1. Application to set aside the conviction
2. Re-open the case

My name: Mr Simon Paul Cordell
DOB: 26/01/1981.
Address: 109 Burncroft Av
Enfield
Middlesex
EN3 7JQ

Case No: 011401596899

Application to set aside the conviction:-

On 01/01/2014 I was stopped by the police as they did not believe that I held a valid policy of insurance. Due to this being a holiday my insurance company was closed so the police could not check if I was in fact was insured, I was insured and asked the police to check there records due to the amount of problems I had had with my insurance not showing on the MID database and being stopped do many times they did this and could in fact see many times but still impounded my van reg CX52 JRZ.

After the holidays I went to the compound and had to again pay for my Van to be taken out of the compound.

I never received any summons in relation to this matter and I only became aware that the case had been dealt with in my absence when I received a letter from the DVLA advising me that I had to send in my driving licence. I disputed with the DVLA the points but I was given an ultimatum that if I did not send in my licence it would be revoked.

The offence of no insurance was allegedly committed on 01/01/2014. I had a valid policy of insurance from 23/02/2013 and this policy was valid until 22/02/2014. The company insuring me was KGM, and my broker was Broadsure direct. I am the named policy holder, Mr. Simon Cordell and my policy number is MT3574694.

I have points on my licence which I should not have. Can you please as a matter of urgency email me back on this matter so that I can have a date so that the conviction can be set aside and my case heard in order that I can show the court my insurance and the PLO can make the necessary enquiries.

I would be grateful if you can inform DVLA that this matter and the points that have been added to my licence is being disputed so this can be put on hold as I do not see why I should suffer when I have done nothing wrong and I was insured to drive. This is in fact having a big effect on my life when I have done nothing wrong and would like this addressed as a matter of urgency.

This matter is urgent. I cannot resolve this matter until the case is listed before either a District Judge or Magistrates so I would appreciate your cooperation. This is causing me stress. Can you now please resolve this legal matter by listing the case for an application to set aside the conviction? I can then forward my documents to the relevant prosecuting authority.

Please see attached my insurance documents for this offence in fact showing I was in fact insured.

I await hearing from you in relation to this matter and I thank you in advance for your anticipated co-operation in this matter.

Yours faithfully

Simon Cordell
