Subject: Public complaint by your son Simon Cordell

Ms Cordell,

I tried to call you today to ask you a question about your son's complaint. I was unable to get hold of you. Please can you reply and let me know if your son is disputing his penalty notice or not. If he has requested a Court hearing (which his complaint would tend to indicate) the complaint will be classed as 'sub-judice' which means it will be put on hold until Court proceedings are complete.
